

Head PGA Professional Ranfurly Castle Golf Club

Founded in 1889, R.C.G.C is located in the beautiful village of Bridge of Weir, Renfrewshire, 16 miles to the west of Glasgow. It is a traditional moorland golf course with magnificent views, overlooking the Clyde Valley and beyond.

Applications are invited from qualified PGA Members. The successful candidate will be highly motivated and forward thinking, demonstrating desire and capability to deliver exceptional customer service and assist the General Manager/Board of Directors in implementing a range of club initiatives.

Applicants will be able to demonstrate experience across the main areas of the role including:

- Operating all aspects of the retail shop, providing excellent front of house customer service.
- Administering club competitions, including timesheet set up and digital management.
- Providing high-quality golf tuition at all levels to members and visitors, along with a desire to develop and deliver junior coaching programmes.
- Work with the General Manger to market the club and generate new members, visiting parties and society income.
- Introduce innovative ideas relating to competitions, member experience, sponsorship and other beneficial revenue streams.

The Club have taken the decision to run the retail business, therefore, the position will be, along with other tasks, to manage the shop on a full-time employed contract based on annualised hours. A salary commensurate with experience along with performance based bonus and ability to retain certain elements of Professional Services income is envisaged. If a candidate strongly desired an alternative arrangement, such as partnership or retainer we would be prepared to consider proposals.

Applications - either via post or email - containing a C.V and covering letter, stating current remuneration, should be received by no later than Sunday 4th October to:
